UCAS Discovery Day: Tuesday 25th June

As you will be aware following the focus to last week's assembly, next Tuesday the UCAS Discovery event at the NEC.

Letters for this educational visit were given out last Friday. If you lose or still require a letter, spares have been given to Miss Hunter in Student Services. The letter has a CONSENT FORM stapled to it at the back that MUST be brought back to either Mr Bowers or Miss Hunter by Thursday 19th June in order to be permitted to attend the visit.

Above is a list of all of the talks that take place on the Big Q&A stage. These are well worth planning in to your itinerary for the day! In addition a reminder of the process of how to register for the event is also given. WHY NOT DO THIS NOW?

Further information regarding the location of the stand for each university can be found on page 2 of this week's edition.

"Never Forget", Year 13

As the immortal Gary Barlow said, "We've come along way..." and as ever, it is strange to find us seemingly so quickly at the final week of the academic year for our Year 13 A Level students.

Arrangements are in place to mark the occasion for both BTEC and A Level students in the form of the traditional Leavers Assembly.

This event will require our Year 13 to arrive at 1425 to head straight to the Drama Studio. Once the assemblies are over, we look forward to the catering team putting laying on a BBQ in the quad area (and hopefully brilliant sunshine!) whilst playing some music that has formed some of the sound track to their time at the Academy over the course of the last two or seven years (!), depending upon if you joined us from Year 7 or indeed Year 12. They may well also be an ice cream van so serve up a celebratory Mr Whippy. By this time, the wider teaching team will also be able to join the students and sign some of their notebooks or shirts!
